

SELECTED READING SUGGESTIONS

Introduction

This is a selective reading list, designed to provide helpful support to diploma candidates in their preparation and to give access to the bibliographies found in the books listed for those interested in taking their studies further. General histories of music, dictionaries, encyclopedias and biographies of composers have not been included. The list begins with general books, and is then followed by listings relating to each subject-line: Directing, Performing and Teaching. While we have distinguished between these subject-lines, many books will inevitably cover areas relevant to more than one of them. Therefore to make the most of the lists, candidates are encouraged to look beyond their specific area. For example, a flute teacher should not just look at the 'Teaching-Flute' section, but also those entitled 'General Books', 'Performing - Flute', and 'Teaching - General'. Please bear in mind that at DipABRSM level you will not be expected to be as knowledgeable or as widely-read as an LRSM or FRSM candidate.

Inclusion here does not indicate that the books are currently in print but all should be available in reference libraries.

We hope to keep these lists updated and should you know of a book which you think ought to be included because of its specific relevance to part of the ABRSM Diploma Syllabus, then please send full details, including ISBN number, to Dr. Nigel Scaife (nscaife@abrsn.ac.uk) at the Board's London office.
